“2012 is a Year of Light”

We will spend a full day with Entura Art, connecting with your intuitive side as you expand, and learn to trust your own divine guidance from Spirit/Source, while bringing more light forward.

*This class isn't about being an artist, it's about being open to Spirit.
“Entura” means, to ‘enter the aura’. Entura Art is an enjoyable way to awaken, release, and experience the ‘Creative Spirit’ within.*

*It is a way to tap into your intuitive vocabulary with a visible result.
Entura Art is energy in motion, as it allows you to move beyond barriers, and blend with your connection to spirit through color and movement.*

You become one with spirit, effortlessly, joyfully, and colorfully.

--Melody is one of the gifted psychics that donates her time to the Aquarian's Baby Girl Project and their psychic fairs. She is also an ordained minister, Reiki Master, Metaphysician, and a strong believer in Intentionality, along with being an intuitive artist.
